Bone markings from memory

10-question written-recall worksheet

Write the term from memory, then check the separate answer key. No word bank. This practices vocabulary; use your course models and diagrams for identification.

Name _____ Date _____

1. Which term names a hole through a bone?

_____

2. A marking forms a basin-like depression. Which term fits?

_____

3. Which marking is a relatively flat joint surface?

_____

4. The rounded joint surfaces on the occipital bone are the occipital ____. Fill in the missing term.

_____

5. Which term completes the name of the prominent rounded articular region at the proximal end of the femur?

_____

6. Which term is a general name for a projecting bony feature?

_____

7. Which term describes a sharp, pointed process?

_____

8. Which term describes a small, rounded projection?

_____

9. What is the bone-marking term for a roughened prominence?

_____

10. Which bone marking forms a ridge?

_____

Keep the answer key out of sight until you finish. Print at actual size on the matching paper size.